In a recent Tweet, President Trump wrote: “Congratulation to author, Nick Adams on the @simonschuster publication of your new book, Trump and Churchill, Defenders of Western Civilization. Certainly a great honor to be compared, in any way, to Winston Churchill.” @NickAdamsUSA.

The book explores how both leaders turned their day’s prevailing politics on its head. In doing so, they both endured shockingly similar battles instigated by the political establishment seeking their destruction. This book as well as others from FLAG will be available for purchase.
